ORDER DENYING POOROUSHASB PARINEH’S
THIRD MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION,
ORDERING DISBURSEMENT OF
FUNDS, AND TEMPORARILY
STAYING ORDER TO DISBURSE
FUNDS

In this interpleader action, an order granted summary judgment for the co-contingent beneficiaries on a life insurance policy, Austiag Parineh, Hormoz Parineh, and Khashayar Parineh, and against the primary beneficiary, Pooroush Parineh, on the basis that Pooroush had been convicted of the murder of the decedent. An order denied Pooroush’s “Motion to Suppress the Summary Judgement [sic],” which was construed as a motion for reconsideration (Dkt. No. 61). An order also denied his second motion for reconsideration (Dkt. No. 63). Pooroush has now made a third. This motion again reiterates Pooroush’s denials of his guilt. He also asserts that his conviction, which has been affirmed by the California Court of Appeal and denied review by the California Supreme Court, is not final, but offers no support for that bare assertion. Moreover, he offers no grounds for reconsideration.

1 Pooroushasb's third motion for reconsideration is DENIED.

2 Pooroushasb requested "the necessary forms for appeal and the forms for indigency."

3 There is no form for an appeal. Pooroushasb must follow the procedures for filing a notice of

4 appeal in this Court if he wishes to appeal the judgment against him. (Though this order takes

5 no position on whether such an appeal would be timely.) The Clerk shall please include the

6 Court's form for application to proceed in forma pauperis when serving this order.

7 This order hereby AUTHORIZES the Court Registry to distribute the proceeds, plus any

8 earned interest, to Austiaj Parineh, Astiag Hormoz Parineh, and Khashayar Parineh, in equal

9 shares. The effect of that order, however, is STAYED until DECEMBER 7, to allow Pooroushasb

10 Parineh to docket an appeal and seek a stay of the disbursement, failing which, the Court

11 Registry shall disburse the funds upon expiration of the stay by this Court. (This order takes no

12 position on whether an appeal would be timely or a stay would be appropriate.)

14 IT IS SO ORDERED.
